Hope Channel to Assist Peruvian Earthquake Victims

On August 15, 2007, an 8.0 magnitude earthquake slammed the coast of Peru, 90 miles southeast of the capital, Lima. More than 400 Adventist members' homes have been destroyed, as well as local churches and the college. Hope Channel has received a special appeal from Pastor Luis Barba for assistance for our brothers and sisters. Barba writes, “We are providing food, temporary housing, and clothing. We thank you in advance for your help in these moments of hurt and suffering. We need your prayers.”

Hope Channel is accepting donations now. Call 1-888-4-HopeTV (888-446-7388) to donate via the telephone. Or send checks and money orders (tag as Peru Earthquake) to: Hope Channel, AMS, P. O. Box 5303, Thousand Oaks, CA 91359. To donate online, go to the Hope Channel Website, www.hopetv.org. Any questions? Call 301-680-6629 (English) or 240-328-7735 (Spanish).

The Adventist Development and Relief Agency (ADRA) is also on the ground in Peru, working to help all people affected by the earthquake. To donate to ADRA's emergency relief efforts to provide basic essentials such as food, water, and clothing to those in need, please call ADRA at 1-800-424-ADRA (2372) or donate online to ADRA's Peru Earthquake fund at www.adra.org.
