In Appreciation for Our Prayers

"Though it may be a bit late, we feel that we must show our appreciation for the entire Review and Herald family for your thought in prayer for us. On January 29, 2008, you prayed for us and for God's work here in Khasi Jaintia Conference.

"We also pray for God's blessings to be upon the entire Review and Herald family and the great work that is being done there.

"Your brother in Christ,

"K. B. Kharbteng

"President

"Khasi Jaintia Conference, India"

"Thank you very much remembering our union in the prayers of the Review and Herald family on April 15, 2008. Please continue to place the publishing work, educational activities, and evangelistic program of our union in your prayers.

"We have certain E. G. White books such as The Desire of Ages, The Great Controversy, Steps to Christ, The Story of Redemption, and Christ's Object Lessons, already in our local language. Other books such as The Acts of the Apostles, The Ministry of Healing, etc., are nearing completion of the translation work. Our church members are engaged in selling the books to the public also. The feedback is very encouraging.

"Recently we were facing Sabbath exam problems for certain public examinations with the government. We prayed about that, and God answered the prayers. All the news media and television channels gave very wide coverage of the Sabbath and the Seventh-day Adventist Church. The people of different religious faiths in the whole union are now aware of our church.

"We do remember the Review and Herald in our prayers. Thank you.

"Yours very sincerely,

"Stanley Samuel

"President

"Southwest India Union Section of Seventh-day Adventists"

"Thank you for your letter dated March 20, 2008. We are happy that you set a date to pray for us. Kindly pray for our goals of reaching 10,000 members and building a study center with accommodation for 100 people and a library.
