

“Angels from heaven stand by the side of all who do service in leading souls to Christ. Those who unite heart and soul in the work of God will be prepared to work in Christ’s lines. With humble, devoted reverence they will labor on the right hand and on the left, using their God-given capabilities to save their fellow men. With singing and praise and thanksgiving they rejoice with God and the heavenly host as they see souls uplifted and helped” (Southern Watchman, Oct. 9, 1901).

Keeping Your Wood Floor’s Natural Shine

Wood floors are a beloved part of a home, and are also a great investment that can boost your home’s value by up to $10,000, according to the Hardwood Information Center.

The wood care experts who make Murphy Oil Soap have some advice on how to keep your floors looking shiny and beautiful.

The first key to maintaining your wood floors is to know what type of finish you have.

Most wood floors installed after the 1960s are finished with polyurethane, which hardens into layers of solid plastic sheets on the surface of the wood.

To find out, scratch the surface of the wood with a coin in an inconspicuous area. If the finish flakes off, a finish like varnish or shellac was probably used. If you think you have wax floors, apply a few drops of water and wait 10 minutes. If white spots appear under the droplets, then your floor has a wax finish.

For polyurethane-finished floors, use a cleaner like Murphy Oil Soap for cleaning. To give your floors the best shine, make sure you follow diluting directions properly when using the concentrated version of Murphy Oil Soap.—Courtesy ARAContent.

Spring Comes With “The Victory Garden”

Visit Hagerstown Community College on Sunday, March 14, when the Alumni Association will present the tristate area’s largest and most extensive floral event, the 16th annual Flower and Garden Show, at the college’s Athletic, Recreation, and Community Center. This year’s theme is “The Victory Garden.”

The event will be held on Sunday from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. A variety of vendors will take part in the show, named as one of the area’s premier events. Show participants include experts in nurseries, lawn and garden equipment, pottery and statuary, landscaping, tree services, stone products, pools, spas, outdoor furniture, florists, wild bird products, and natural gourmet gifts from the garden.

Seminars and demonstrations on a variety of gardening topics will be held continuously throughout both days of the event. In addition, area garden clubs will set up displays, and quilt raffles will be held. Visitors are encouraged to bring their children to enjoy the gardening and activity area for kids. Lunch and snacks will be available at the Garden Café.

Admission is $4 for adults and free for children under 12. Proceeds benefit the HCC Alumni Association.

For additional information, contact Lisa Stewart at 301-790-2800, ext. 346, or via e-mail at stewartl@hagerstowncc.edu.

Need a Massage?

Did you know that the Adventist Risk Management health-care plan covers massage therapy? Tarah Benton, L.M.T., is a licensed and nationally certified massage therapist, and is now accepting clients with ARM health plan coverage. If you would like to book an appointment and take advantage of your ARM coverage, just bring your insurance card with you on your first visit, and Tarah will do the rest. There's no waiting for reimbursement, and only a small co-pay is due at the time of service. Session lengths and co-pay costs are as follows:

30 minutes, $8; 60 minutes, $15. A total of 30 visits per plan period is allowed. This means that an average of two to three sessions per month are covered. The new plan period began January 1, 2010. Call Tarah Benton at 301-824-4568 for more information or to book an appointment. Conveniently located in Hagerstown, next to the campus of Highland View Academy.

Steve Hamous Is Famous!

The Guide and Real magazine staff wishes to express their sincere gratitude to Steve Hamous. His suggestion to name Guide's
new outreach magazine Real was a winner!

What can be of greater value than to make
Jesus real to children who don't know Him?
Thanks much, Steve!

Homeschool Companion Program Schedule

A couple of weeks ago the Web site for Life Talk, which hosts Homeschool Companion, started experiencing some technical difficulties. Many of you who routinely listen through audio streaming have had to listen at www.live365.com. We apologize for the secular advertisements and will soon have our new site up and operational.

Enjoy these Homeschool Companion programs during March:

3-10-10 "A Teacher's Story": How does a teacher cope with the death of a student? Learn lessons of hope and joy from a heart-breaking experience. Guest: Pat Giese, associate superintendent for the Southern New England Conference. She has served at Toledo Junior Academy and Blue Mountain Elementary during the past 33 years as a principal/teacher.

3-17-10 "A Kid's View of Literature": What's so important about having your child read religious literature? Guest: Wilona Karimabadi, marketing and editorial director for KidsView, a magazine for kids ages 8-12. She's currently working on a master's degree at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore.

3-24-10 "Ride for a Reason": What does a motorcycle have to do with a healthy lifestyle? Our guest is Bob Sparenberg, who founded the De Coster's Kids Program in 1980. Pastor Bob will explain their exciting presentation of freestyle motorcycle athleticism and their message.

3-31-10 "Debate Show: To Skip or Not to Skip?" We will be discussing the overwhelming temptation to advance your child a grade if they do well with their schoolwork. After all, you don't want them to be bored.

Listen every Wednesday at 11:00 a.m. EST on LifeTalk radio—www.lifetalk.net; or Saturdays, at 10:00 a.m. CT if you are in the KBHW 99.5 FM listening area.

God bless,

Rose Gamblin, Candy DeVore, and Calvin Follett

 : "There are those who have known the pardoning love of Christ and who really de: sire to be children of God, yet they realize that their character is imperfect, their life
 : faulty, and they are ready to doubt whether their hearts have been renewed by the : Holy Spirit. To such I would say, Do not draw back in despair. We shall often have : to bow down and weep at the feet of Jesus because of our shortcomings and mis-
 : takes, but we are not to be discouraged. Even if we are overcome by the enemy, we : are not cast off, not forsaken and rejected of God. No; Christ is at the right hand of : God, who also maketh intercession for us. Said the beloved John, "These things
 : write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the : Father, Jesus Christ the righteous" (Steps to Christ, p. 64).

New Product Highlights

Title: Witness: A Fresh Look at the New Testament Church

Author: Jack J. Blanco

He died for them. They lived for Him.

No matter what happened—threats, beatings, stoning, exile, or imprisonment—the leaders of the infant Christian church were determined to take the good news of Jesus' life, death, and resurrection to the entire world. That was their mission, their sole purpose in life.

In this fresh, unified narrative their stories and letters are arranged in chronological order—Luke's account of the various missionary journeys interspersed with the letters the apostles wrote to the churches. Written in modern language and free from the disjointed interruption of chapter or verse, this is the message of God's love for humanity and the astonishing power of that love to change lives.

Title: Broken Stick

Author: Eileen E. Lantry

Norman Ferris stood his ground as a group of 40 or 50 Bellonese warriors held their spears high and thundered across the sacred beach toward him. He had come to this remote island to tell the devil worshippers about the one true God . . . and he wasn't leaving until he did so.

Norman wasn't afraid to die, and he wasn't afraid to live, either. In 1927, fully aware of the dangers awaiting them, he and his wife, Ruby, sailed to the Solomon Islands only a year and a half after their marriage. Daunting trials and challenges would follow, but so would profound spiritual victories and miraculous answers to prayer.

Actually, this isn't just the story of two courageous missionaries from Australia. This book is full of stories about the incredible power of God in the lives of all those who choose to follow Him because somebody loved them enough to tell them. Head-hunting devil priests included.

Title: Ossie the Otter

Author: Kenneth C. Crawford

It was a rare and perfect Alaskan day. The air was peaceful, and the surface of the lake shimmered like a mirror. But Ossie, a baby river otter, barely noticed—he was on a mission.

Tag along with Ossie on his aquatic adventures as he encounters the rough and tumbling river, battles a hungry osprey, and makes friends with a beaver named Sage—all the while learning to survive in the Alaskan wilderness.
